2. Defendant provides pharmacies with powerful robotics, software, and financial tools to grow revenue and leverage automation.
3. Defendant is a private pharmaceutical company employing more than 700+ employees with a revenue of over $201.5 million dollars, and a corporate office site located in the Kansas City area.
4. In or around June 2021, Plaintiff applied for a Training Specialist position at Defendant.
5. In or around July 2021, Plaintiff received a verbal job offer from Defendant at a rate of $26/hr per hour, whereafter Defendant specified Plaintiff's yearly rate of pay was estimated to be in excess of $60,000, followed by a written employment agreement.
6. In or around the first half of the month of August 2021, Plaintiff was selected by Plaintiff's supervisor to have additional personal information collected from Plaintiff, related to Plaintiff's rights and identities under the Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
7. After Defendant's collection of Plaintiff's protected information (including but not limited to, Plaintiff's religious observances and details of Plaintiff's national ethnic origin), Defendant then disclosed the information with negligence in violation of Plaintiff's rights and federal law to other coworkers employed at Defendant.

8. Following conversations amongst Plaintiff's supervisor with employees from Defendant's Human Resources (HR) Department and a number of other employees at Defendant (outside of HR), Plaintiff was notified during the week of August 16, 2021 by Defendant's Human Resources Department that Defendant will no longer deploy Plaintiff to work for further employment at Defendant (despite Plaintiff being scheduled to travel for work deployment, like Plaintiff's other co-workers were allowed to continue to do in their similar position(s) as Plaintiff).

14. Following Defendant's actions taken with malice and/or disregard towards Plaintiff, Plaintiff has not been allowed to continue work at Defendant since August 2021.
15. In accordance with Defendant's employment agreement, employees at Defendant are subject to a non-compete agreement which restricts opportunities that (former) employees at Defendant may apply for following employment.

17. Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional distress and been subject to loss wages as a result of termination from employment at Defendant.
